litigation is final. Attorney Frokjer stated there are a lot of statutes that prevent the town from abandoning the road and the town would be in violation if they proceeded with the request. Atty. Frokjer stated that Mr. Waldinger's "facts" are different from what the court found. If the town were to eventually abandon the road in question, it would open the town up to a lawsuit for landlocking the current landowners at the end of Birch Bay Rd. He stated that the current owners (Bramsen's) have been following the lawsuit closely. Attorney Frokjer stated that he personally reviewed the deeds that are adjacent to the roadway and they all contain language that there is a town road along each of them.

Clerk May reported that the Oneida County Law Enforcement background check found nothing that would impede Mr. Schau from receiving a liquor license.
